

I am a South Bend, Indiana resident who is very pleased with the current state of our Telephone Privacy Laws. I oppose any attempt to weaken such laws. I especially oppose the attempt by the Consumers Bankers Association (CBA) to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers.

Since the Telephone Privacy Laws have been in effect, I have been enjoying the fact that when the telephone rings, it is someone who I actually wish to speak with, and not a telemarketer. I would greatly resent any attempt to change this.

Please do the right thing and vote in the interest of privacy for the masses, not profit for powerful.

Thank You
